CHAIRMAN AGEE WINS TWO FIGHTS IN WEBER REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

There were two chort, sharp and decisive contests yesterday at the meeting of the Weber county Republican committee was appointed, consisting of R. S. Farnsworth, F. J. Hender of the Weber county Republican committee, and in both of them, as well as in a number of lesser hattles, County Chairman A. W. Agec came out victor-lous, Whether the questions at issue were worth while or not is a question for the practical politicians to settle, but certain it is that Mr. Agec, the chairman who has been preity severely lampooned, and lambasted by numerous prominent members of his party and who has been called on by party organs to regign the the continuation of the practical politicians to seitle, but certain it is that Mr. Age, the chairman who has been pretty severely lampooned, and lambasted by numerous prominent members of his party and who has been called on by party organs to regign the pounty chairmanehip for being a traitor, a candidate for office and other things—certain it is that he had his way in all matters pertaining to the preliminary arrangements for the county and judicial conventions. He squelched a movement having in view a radical change of the manner of choosing delegates, had the manner of choosing delegates, had the matter of appointing delegates referred to a committee appointed by himself and Secretary Bluth as members, and near the close rising to a question of personal privilege, he replied to some of the attacks made on him, reading a defense of his acts and denying that he hed used his office as county chairman to further his candidacy for an office as judge on the supreme bench.

The meeting was held in answer to a settled on Friday, Aug. 12, as the date of the primaries and determined that as set of delegates and determined that as set of delegates be elected for each convention. Each district is to have one delegate to the judicial convention and to for prositions remaining are to go to the four positions remaining are to go to the four positions remaining are to go to the four ware the Republican vote was largest.

For the Old Folks.

The old folks of Weber county over 70 years of age will have an excursion to Lagoon on Tuesday, the train leaving here at 10 a. m., and leaving Lagoon, for the return trip, at 6:15 p. m.

The Oregon Short Line Railroad company has proffered free transportation from the Farmington switch and free admission to the grounds. The Ogden street car company will also give free transportation to and from the depot on their street cars for those wearing the old folks? badge.

After the call to order by Chairman Age the committee plunged at once into this subject and the squabble was or when the chairman announced that he had omitted to have the roil called. The oversight was corrected and incidentary a number of appointments made by the chairman to fill vacancies were realified. The proposal to change the mely dependent of the proposal to change the mely dependent of selecting delegates was sported by the chairman who explained friculties of proceeding two sets of delegates, one of forty-five and one of thirty-three, were to be chosen and when some of the counting delegates. We wade the country delegates. F. W. Wade Mary delegates was the country delegates. F. W. Wade Mary delegates was the country convention plan. R. S. Farnsworth, H. A. Simmons, H. C. Wardleigh and others a vored elections direct from the districts. Chairman Age called vice chairman wade to the platform and argued for the retention of the present plan of direct election. He claimed that residing in the Twentleth Ogden district he was a county delegate, a remark that called forth mans sarcastice references to later mixings.

I m. over the remains of Peder Ottersen. No evening evrice in respect to the memory of the deceased. On Thursday the Ladden of the proper bow to be country members was taken to Mer. A. First Baptist church; Rev. Horace B. Slimons surgices and greatly assisted in their deliberations.

At the close of about five minutes of arguments a vote was unanimously carried for district primaries to elect delegates affectly to the conventions. This was ratified by the general committee and it was voted that the question to the country members was taken to Mer. A. The close of about five minutes of arguments a vote was unanimously carried for district primaries to elect delegates differently to the conventions. This was ratified by the general committee and it was voted that the question of the proper body to do this work.

At the close of about five minutes of arguments a vote was unanimously carried for di teously asked to become the chairman. He acceded and greatly assisted in their deliberations.

At the close of about five minutes of arguments a vote was unanimously carried for district primaries to elect delegates directly to the conventions. This was ratified by the general committee and it was voted that the question of apportionment of delegates, the time of holding the district primaries, and other details be left to a committee of five. This was carried and later a motion that Chairman Agee and Secretary Bluth be added to the committee. Mr. Hanson suggeste. that the executive committee was the proper body to do this work. Agee sidetracked this by urging that the dear country people were much concerned and there was but one country member of the executive committee; also that all the members of the executive committee were not present. Later he appointed as the committee four members from the country—Lowe of Hooper, Stewart of Riverdale and E. W. Wade of Ogden. He suavely offered to withdraw the appointments if they were not satisfactory, but the committee ratified them.

ments if they were not satisfactory but the committee ratified them.

The chairman then suggested the need of organized work in getting Republicans naturalized. This was left to the executive committee. Mr. Kelly of that committee suggested that funds would be needed, whereupon he was sat upon by the chairman, who said a man who did not wish to become an American citizen bad enough to pay the $3 did not deserve to be one.

Then, as an adjournment was about to be taken, the chairman drew a typewritten sn ech from his pocket, and asking consideration as a matter of personal privilege, he referred to the charges made against him of unfaithfulness to the statement of a statement that he had been statement that he had been sending in the alarm.

Then, as an adjournment was about to be taken, the chairman drew a typewritten so ech from his pocket, and asking consideration as a matter of personal privilege, he referred to the charges made against him of unfaithfulness to the party and of a statement that had been published demanding that he resign. He hurled back the charges that he had used his office to further his personal candidacy for supreme judge, and said that no criticism of his course had ever come to him from any associate on the committee who had worked loyally with higher the success of the whole county ticket. Mr. Wade bore similar testimony to Mr. Aree's.

Mr. Hollingsworth, though not a member of the committee, snavely cleared the surcharged atmosphere by dinlomatically proposing the appointment of a commit-ther his candidacy for an office as judge on the supreme bench.

The meeting was held in answer to a call sent out by the chairman for the committee to meet and arrange for the selection of forty-five delegates to the state convention and thirty-three delegates to the judicial convention, which is to nominate a candidate for district judge and district attorney. Previous to the assembling there was active buttonhoing going on amongst the delegates discussing the proposed change back to the old method in the election of delegates, the argument of one faction was that the other crowa had the pins all set up in every district with men staked out to be delegates to both conventions.

The other claimed that the opposing
